Meeting Notes 9/25

Timeline:
- This coming year is the 75th anniversary of the liberation from Auschwitz on January 27th
- Eva recorded a speech that will be given by another survivor
- The goal is for the site to be finished so they can roll it out by the time this ceremony is held

Absolute Necessities:
- User feedback and social sharing capability
- Blue color theme
- Flower theme
- User inputted date: name, age, email, message
- Filtration of submitted messages for language or offensive content

Other Needs/Potential Ideas:
- Different flower customization options
- Likes or favoriting features
    - Flower growing in size the more likes or interaction it receives
- Link to social media accounts for sharing
- Privacy concerns
    - Under 18 gets different set of information than over 18
- Mix of human moderation and automatic filtration system
    - Admin capabilities for certain people to change or delete submissions that came through and need to be removed
- Changes to UI based on the browser used
- Filter number of flowers on screen based on time added or most viewed, etc.
- Stylized map as the canvas instead of solid color
- Different languages other than English
